THE STORY OF TOMMY TUCKER

Little Tommy Tucker has not mother and father for care him, So he learned to survive hungry and when he get some food so he save food for next day.

One day he comes outside of a container that he sleep in yesterday he was very hungry, he started searching food he looked inside the bakery shop he think “if I have half penny so I can purchase a brown bread and eat it”.

Tommy remembered he get food in a house last week, he think to go their again, he started walking to house, the house was of alderman. Tommy reached the house of alderman luckily, the alderman’s marriage was held today.

Tommy asks to alderman to give him food, the alderman replied—I will give you food when you sing a song for me. Tommy replied I can eat but not sing, the alderman again says-I will give you food when you sing a song for me.

Tommy says I did not know any song. The alderman says make any poem own self. Tommy sings a poem –

A bumble-bee lit on a hollyhock flower

That was wet with rain of morning shower

While the honey he sipped

And he couldn't fly again for half an hour!

Good! Cried the alderman and said very well I like this poem sing a new poem. Tommy sing poem-

A big frog lived in a slimy bog,

The cold got worse,

The frog got hoarse,

Till croaking he scared a polliwog!

Good said alderman, the alderman gives him food; food was white bread with butter. The alderman placed a condition in front of Tommy, condition was to divide bread into four parts with a knife.

Tommy replied it cannot be done.

Why Tommy?

It cannot be done. How, let me ask you, sir, could you have married without any wife?

Ha, ha, ha laughed the alderman and give a knife and food to Tommy. The alderman's wife said to alderman to hire Tommy as servant. The alderman asks to Tommy to become our servant?

Tommy replied yes I can become your servant; I am searching work where I get food and bed to sleep thought Tommy.

The alderman made servant uniform for Tommy. Always Tommy goes with alderman in meetings etc. The mayor wanted to adopt Tommy. The mayor asked to alderman to give me Tommy. Alderman says yes to mayor. The mayor placed the condition that was to make a river in the river milk flow. The Tommy becoming nerves he thinkd how I can flow milk in place of water and how I can get milk.

He get an idea he says to mayor to I have sufficient milk to flow in river; but first you will have to empty the river. This answer pleased the mayor and mayor adopts Tommy, known as SIR THOMAS TOMMY.

After mayor died the Tommy become mayors this story tells us don't give up.
